Local transportation in Budapest

Public transportation in general is quite well organized in Budapest.

- Ticked vending machines are located at well frequented places, including Liszt Ferenc Airport Terminal 2 and the large train stations. The vending machines accept HUF and credit cards.
- One single ticket costs 350 HUF (1.20 EUR), one block of 10 tickets is 3000 HUF (10 EUR). It may be reasonable to purchase 24-hour Budapest travel cards for 1650 HUF (5.40 EUR), or a 72-hour Budapest travel card for 4150 HUF (14 EUR).
- Transferring between lines requires another ticket to be validated, except when changing between metro lines (M1, M2, M3 and M4).
- The simplest choice for an online trip planner is the use of Google Maps, which has precise schedule information.
- EU citizens above 65 years old can use all public transportations for free.

From train station "Keleti": Take metro line 4 in direction "Kelenföld".

To the conference location (Budapest University of Technology), get off at "Szent Gellert ter" (5 stops, 7 min) and walk 800 meters through the university campus to Building H.

To Hotel Flamenco, get off at "Moricz Zsigmond körter" (6 stops, 48min) and walk 800 meters North.

From train Station "Nyugati": To the University Campus take tram line 4 or 6 in the "left hand" direction. After crossing the Danube, get off at "Petöfi hid Budai Hidfö" and walk 150m to Building H.

From "Nyugati" Station to Hotel Flamenco take tram line 6 "to the left". Get off at "Moricz Zsigmond körter" (end station) and walk 800 meters North.
